"Incriminating Evidence," Mammoth Moving Picture, Nearly One-Haif Mile Long.

This wonderful moving picture will go on exhibition today, and is one of the most marvelous pictures in the field, covering two complete reels and is nearly one-half of a mile in jength. This picture is not simply exciting, but is thrilling to the limit, as well as consuming nearly a half-hour in its exhibition. This picture will remain on the programme for three days only, and the public will be wise, if it utilizes the first opportunity to witness it, for there is bound to be an enormous house to witness it later in the week. The magnitude of this picture can only be realized when seen, is eascan only be realized when seen, is easily one of the greatest feature pictures shown at the Breed this season.

Conspicuous among the comedy films is the one called His WHe's Ma, and snother one cuiltied Leading the Cops a Chase, making it altogether a varied and strong bill. Acting upon the brilliant success achieved by Madame Morelle during the last week, in singing the difficult Italian song, Musical Director Dowsett has arranged for Madame Morelle to sling the beautiful song entitled "The Lover and the Bird," by Guglieimo. This is a long and difficult arletta, filled with exquisitely dainty and delighting bird calls and exchans long. lightful bird calls and schoes long trills and warbles, making it one of the most beautiful songs given by the

Sheedy's Thie Week. For this week the management has secured a programme still better than the best and for one to be amused it is wise to "follow the crowd" to the Auditorium this week. This week's programme will find just the kind of vaudeville suitable for a Norwich audience and they will find wo of the funnest comedians on the stage today in Shayne and King, with an all original list of songs and parodies and funny sayings, which will surely delight more than any other team ever put on at Sheedy's; they are a decided knockout at every town and city they have ever played. Sally Lee, the nimble footed singing comedience, has all new songs and a whirlwind of dances never seen here, which has already won her a good which has already won her a good standing among artists. Sensational hand-balancing and feats of strength will be shown by the "Great Flemings" the European marvels of strength, a anan and woman in acrobatic stunts, also a variety of tumbling which has never been deplicated.

The greatest of all sketches ever put into Norwich will be seen this week, also, played by Amy Shaffer and her company of talented artists. Miss Shaffer's artistic portraya; in the title role of her splendid little playlet has earned her many enconiums from both the press and public from all over the

REID & HUGHES OPENING TODAY. Store Has Been Rebuilt and a New Stock of Goods Installed, Ready for the Buying Public to Make Selec-

The store of the Reld & Hughes Co will be opened this morning for busi-ness, after a thorough overhauling and ness, after a thorough overhauling and reconstruction after the disastrous fire of February 9. An entirely new stock of goods has been secured, and it presents a decidedly attractive appearance in the freshness of its finish and its stock. There has necessarily been some rearranging of departments to accommodate in the Main street story the section which was burned out in the Shannon building, but room has been found for all, and each department carries a full line.

The interior and exterior of the ground floor have been redecorated, the woodwork being done in cherry, with white ceilings and sides. The front of the store has been done in green, and the windows are handsomely decorated for the season.

On the main floor, at the left of the emirance, is the sub-station, followed

FUETHT.

I WILL

I will start anew this morning with a higher, fairer creed;
I will cease to stand complaining of my ruthless neighbor's greed;
I will cease to aft repining while my duty's call is clear;
I will waste no moment whining and my heart shall know no fear.

I will look sometimes about me for the things that merit praise;
I will search for hidden beauties that elide the groundler's gase;
I will try to find contentment in the paths that I must tread;
I will cease to have resentment when another moves ahead.

I will not be swayed by envy when my fival's strength is shown;
I will not deny his merit, but I'll strive to prove my own;
I will try to see the beauty spread before me can or shine;
I will cause to preach your duty and be more cancerned with mine.
